

MUTIARA HATI
(Pearl of The Heart)

Dian (23), a single mother who has 3 children named; Bella (7 years), Lala (5 years) and Nabil (4 years). In a state of pregnancy Dian was forced to work as a delivery courier, Joko (Dian's husband), disappeared without a trace. Every day Dian has to slog and work several jobs a day to provide for her 3 children and also save for her 4th child who will be born soon.

Even so Dian never complained. Dian considers the 3 children and the one in her womb, as the most beautiful gifts in her life. Dian's fatigue after work immediately disappeared when she saw the cheerful laughter of her children. But one day a major disaster struck Dian. Bella, who was invited by Dian to work as a food courier at the Padang restaurant, accidentally tripped over a gas hose that caused a fire. Dian immediately ran to the kitchen, through the fire to save Bella. Unfortunately, Bella's life was not saved !!

Her strikes of bad luck doesn't end there, Dian was also blamed for the fire and was immediately dragged to the police and then charged with a prison sentence of 5 years. Meanwhile Lala and Nabil were too young to understand what happened and they wonder why is their mother not coming home. Until finally they heard that Dian was imprisoned and they would be taken to an orphanage. Lala ran away while Nabila was finally taken to the orphanage.

Long story short, in the prison Dian struggled to raise her baby until she was born a beautiful baby girl named Talia. With reluctance Dian finally handed over Talia to the country, but if anyone adopted it, Talia would not be taken to an orphanage.

When Dian was in prison, a husband and wife, Angga and Wulan adopted baby Talia. And 7 years later Talia grew up to be a cute and smart little girl. Angga is very fond of Talia, even after Angga and Wulan's biological son; Vino, born 2 years later. Talia and Vino grew up like siblings, Wulan was very fond of Vino while Angga was very fond of Talia. Angga's affection for Talia often irritates Wulan. Vino once asked Talia why his father really loved Talia and didn't even care about him. Wulan and Angga's marriage was on the brink of divorce because Wulan protested Angga as he cared so much of Talia but not so much to Vino. Angga has his own reason; he is suspicious if Vino really is his biological son because Wulan had an affair just few months before she was pregnant with Vino.

Talia herself loves and protects Vino, even when Vino got bullied at school. Talia who defended Vino. Vino considers Talia as his protector.

Talia and Vino were very close without realizing that they were not related by blood. Talia promised Vino that she will make their father pay more attention to Vino.

At school Talia and Vino are friends with Mia, Didi and Fero. Fero and Didi are Vino's classmates; Fero is a genius who wears thick glasses, Didi the chubby but quiet and the strongest among the three of them, while Vino, the good looking one, becomes their leader. Mia is Talia's best friend at school. Mia lives in an orphanage where but Mia is very cheerful and even hopes that one day she will be adopted by someone so she can have a family like Talia.

Talia is also very fond of Mia and often helps Mia. Mia's father is actually still alive and Mia used to be a beggar when Mia was still a toddler . Mia often feels dizzy because when her father used her to beg, he gave Mia medicine to make her look like she was sick. Because of she is physically weak, Mia often get bullied with his friends. Talia is Mia's only friend. Mia's father often shows up at school but Talia will deal with him and sends him away.

Five years passed, Dian was free from prison. Dian, who had been holding back her longing, immediately ran home, hoping to meet her children again. But when he got home, Dian could only be stunned to see his house now occupied by someone else. That person just told the location of Bella's grave and Lala and Nabil who were now being treated in an orphanage.

With an unsteady step Dian then made a pilgrimage to Bella's grave. A surprise appears. Arriving at Bella's grave, Dian accidentally meets Lala who also happens to be on a pilgrimage, Lala is now in 10 years old and still living in the orphanage – the same one where Mia lives. But when Dian wanted to hug her child, Lala instead screaming and snapping at her, saying that she hates her mother who got her sister killed and break the family apart. Lala doesn't want to see or meet her mother ever again and then she runs away, leaving Dian.

Dian tried to chase Lala. But in the middle of the trip Dian had an accident and was helped by Talia, Mia, Vito and Vito's two friends.

Talia then asked her father to pick her up.

Luckily Dian was only slightly injured. Feeling sorry, Talia then asked Angga to accept Dian at her home to work as a maid. The story was even more exciting. One day Dian finally found out the secret that Talia turned out to be her biological child !!

Can Dian make Talia accept it later? Will Dian manage to reunite her lost children ?? Is Vito really Angga's son or Wulan's child from her affair ??
